

BOWEN HERALD

A Weekly News Publication of Bowen University

BOWEN UNIVERSITY VC REITERATES INSTITUTION'S COMMITMENT TO GODLY VALUES

The Vice Chancellor of Bowen University, Prof. Joshua Ogunwole has stated that Bowen University is building future leaders that will effect change and not building leaders on the platform of drug abuse and drug peddling.

He stated this during a live interview on Bowen Radio on Wednesday 5th December 2018, while speaking on the recent happenings in the University. He also used the opportunity to dispel the rumours making rounds on social media as feeble attempts to dissuade him from his fight against drug peddling and abuse among Bowen Students. He revealed that out of 37 students sampled, 24 of them tested positive to the dope test, while six refused to undergo the test.

The Vice Chancellor reiterated Bowen University's commitment to inculcating godliness into the lifestyle of the students, adding that the University is not repentant about the course she has set for herself.

NLA HOLDS ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING IN BOWEN UNIVERSITY

Bowen University magnanimously granted full sponsorship to the Osun State Chapter of the Nigerian Library Association to hold its Library Week and Annual General Meeting at the Timothy Olagbemi University Library, from Wednesday 6th December, 2018.

This was disclosed by the Chairperson, Nigerian Library Association Osun State Chapter, Dr. (Mrs) Modupe Aduke Aboyade.

One of the highlights of the NLA Week according to Dr. (Mrs) Aboyade would be the delivery of a lecture titled: "Social Media, National Security and National Development". She said the lecture would be aimed at capturing the use of Social Media and how it affects the lives of Nigerian Youths positively and negatively.

Participants would also be enlightened on how to use Social Media Tools positively while fulfilling their mandate as librarians to provide information.

- > BOWEN STUDENTS RECOGNIZED IN NATIONAL POETRY PRIZE.
- > BOWEN UNIVERSITY HOLDS ANNUAL CAROL SERVICE

BOWEN HERALD

A Weekly News Publication of Bowen University

BOWEN UNIVERSITY HOLDS ANNUAL CAROL

Bowen University held her annual Christmas Carol Service on Sunday 2nd December, 2018 at the University Worship Centre.

The service commenced at 10:00am with many amazing performances from students, groups and service units, as well as the University choir, in songs, drama, spoken word, instrumental sessions, scriptural reading, and carol renditions.

A special thanksgiving session was also held for the Medical students who just completed their MB examinations.

The highlight of the program was the special rendition of “For Unto Us A King Is Born”, performed by the University Choir in the tune of the UEFA Champions League Anthem.

A special prayer was offered for all students, staff, parents, Bowen University and Nigeria as a whole by the University Chaplain, Rev. Dr. Humphrey Okerefor.

The Vice Chancellor, Professor Joshua Ogunwole offered

thanks to God, as well as all the people who put in time and efforts to make the carol a huge success; particularly the members of the choir, who were hosted to a lunch, sponsored by his family.

BOWEN STUDENTS RECOGNIZED IN NATIONAL POETRY

Two Law students have had their poetry works published in the top 100 poems of the Nigerian Students Poetry Prize 2018 titled: “DEEP

DREAMS”.

The poems, DERANGED by Omotola Betty and THE COLOR OF DEATH by Esther Umaru Yila were selected out of over 3000 entries for the collection.

Instituted in 2016 to stimulate creativity and promote literary excellence amongst Nigerian undergraduates, the award has had two grand prize winners – Noah Oladele, Obafemi Awolowo University, Ile-Ife (2016) and Bakre Fadil Adedamola, University of Ibadan (2017).